Joint Degree Graduate - December 1998

The following December 1998 graduate has been awarded the degree indicated below, having completed the Hastings Joint Degree Program.

Jason D. Kaune
M.P.P., Harvard University

Tony Patiño Fellow-Elect

The Tony Patiño Fellowship was created to support those individuals whose personal and academic histories show leadership, academic achievement, ethical and honorable conduct, good moral character, dedication to humane values, participation in public service activities, well-adjusted personality, and good judgment. The fellowship provides educational and living expenses and is renewable for two subsequent consecutive academic years based upon the fellow-elect's personal and academic performance and his or her participation in the legal profession. Upon receiving the two renewals of fellowship, the final approval of the renewal committee, and a Juris Doctor degree, the fellow-elect is then known as a "Tony Patiño Fellow."

Joseph W. Cotchett

Joseph W. Cotchett received a B.S. degree in engineering from California Polytechnic College, San Luis Obispo in 1960 and his law degree from Hastings in 1964. He was born in Chicago and reared in Brooklyn and Long Beach, Long Island. He served in the U.S. Army Intelligence, then joined the Reserves, from which he retired as a full colonel and commander (of the 5th Military Law Center at the Presidio). After law school, Cotchett went to San Mateo County and joined law school friends and others in transforming the peninsula's politics. Part of a two-man firm, he tried both civil and criminal cases, became the youngest member of the State Bar's board of governors at 33, was named to the State Judicial Council, turned down a judgeship, and otherwise established himself as one of California's fast-rising young lawyers. He is currently a partner in the 15-lawyer firm of Cotchett, Pitre & Simon of Burlingame.

The July 19, 1998 issue of the San Francisco Examiner Magazine reads, "When Joe Cotchett, one of the Bay Area's most powerful lawyers, isn't defending the underdog, he's nailing his colleagues for their disappearing ethics." He has been named one of the nation's 100 most influential lawyers by the National Law Journal for three years running, awarded Lawyer of the Year by Trial Lawyers for Public Justice, served in a host of prestigious legal positions, has received numerous honors, is author of six books: California Products Liability Actions, California Courtroom Evidence, Federal Courtroom Evidence, Persuasive Opening Statements and Closing Arguments, The Ethics Gap, California Courtroom Evidence Foundations, and various law review articles. He also lectures and devotes time to various civic organizations. He was appointed to the Hastings College of the Law Board of Directors in 1981 and served on the board until 1993.

Joe Cotchett and his wife, Victoria, have established a family foundation that brings wounded Bosnian children to the United States for medical care and contributes to the local animal humane society, homeless, and battered women's groups. They also are partners in two San Francisco restaurants. They reside in Hillsborough with their two daughters, Quinn and Camilla. Leslie, Charles, and Rachael are Cotchett's adult children from a previous marriage.

The key below shows graduates who have completed concentrated study in one of the indicated areas.

Caps and Gowns—An Explanation

In the medieval city, clothing not unlike that worn by the participants in this commencement ceremony was common. The modern academic costume has evolved from the dress of the medieval guilds and the early religious orders. Today, anyone with a college or university degree may wear the black academic gown. The hood, which is placed on the graduate by a member of the faculty during the ceremony, indicates the doctoral level degree. Placement of the hood by a member of the faculty gives recognition of the academic accomplishment, and welcomes the graduate to the fraternity of professionals. At the University of California, Hastings College of the Law, the lining of the hood has a blue chevron on a gold ground to represent the university colors. A Hastings faculty member who holds a degree from another college or university wears the colors of that school. The velvet edging on hoods is the color which represents the subject in which the degree was earned by the wearer. Purple is Law. The Doctor's costume also has velvet trim on the gown, including cross bars on the sleeve. The trimming may be black or may match the color of the hood edging. The tassel is on the left side of the cap indicating an advanced degree.
